Wizardry in Wood showcases the best UK and international contemporary turning. The first exhibition was held by the Worshipful Company of Turners in 2004 to celebrate the 400th anniversary of its Royal Charter.

The Turners' Company also holds biennial Turning Competitions. These were part of Wizardry in Wood 2008 and 2012 and will also form part of Wizardry in Wood 2016.

The Company's Wizardry in Wood exhibitions and biennial turning competitions play a significant role in promoting outstanding woodturning and introducing individual turners to a wider public.

Wizardry in Wood is organised by the Worshipful Company of Turners on behalf of the Turners' Company Charity.
